Grant Information:

- The Cremona Recreation Board is responsible for grant allocations within the Cremona Recreation District.
- Funding requests must be submitted on the approved annual Cremona & District Recreation Grant application form.
- This grant may be used towards operating or facility upgrade costs and expenditures for recreation and cultural programs and facilities.
- Additional information may be requested by the Board to aid in the funding process.
- As a condition of receiving financial support, County rural residents shall be granted the same access and pay the same user and/or registration fees as residents of the Village.
- The approved organizations shall be accountable for the expenditure of funds provided. The approved funding must be used exclusively for the project/program identified in the application.
- Funding approved in one fiscal year does not guarantee approved funding in subsequent years.
- The Cremona & District Recreation Board may approve all, part, or deny any request received.

The following information must accompany the grant application:

- 2025 Financial Statement including reserves
- Registered Societies Return for 2024
